THE LEDGER on Friday contained an account of the burning of the big hotel at West Baden, Ind. None of the Cincinnati papers had a word of it. If you fail to read THE LEDGER, you fail to get the very latest news.

Like old Kentucky's world-wide celebrated Bourbon, "The older the better," is D. Hechinger & Co.'s establishment. Today our house stands unrivaled in the state. Why? Because we "know our business." We understand the wants of the public and cater to them. We have long since learned that our people don't want "bargain-counter stuff." Good, honest, up-to-date merchandise is what they want, and are more than willing to pay for it. Moreover, the quantities we buy—and buy for cash only—enable us to give you the best of merchandise for at least the same price that you will pay for inferior goods away from home.

Ours is in all the world implies "The Home Store."

We are as proud of our business as a boy with his first pair of pants made like his Dad's, and spare no pains to make our customers feel equally as proud of the goods they buy of us.

DID YOU SAY SOMETHING ABOUT—

SHOES

Yes? Very well; come to us and we will show you Men's and Boys' Shoes that are made "to wear" and look "good." We believe we are the only dealers in Fine Shoes who say "Money back" or another pair if the pair you bought here prove unreasonably bad. Look in our Shoe Window.

MR. BIG BUSINESS to MISS LITTLE PROFIT.

THE MARRIAGE CONTRACT.

We, the undersigned, in making our marriage vow, have decided that while we expect to derive much pleasure from our union, we have not united for the sole purpose of selfishness, but to do something in this world to uplift some of the burdens that people of these days are laden, and we feel that we can do more good by uniting our efforts than by doing so alone. The people must be clothed, and we are going to do it CHEAPER than any one else by doing a Big Business with Little Profits.

We did not unite to injure in any way MR. HIGH PRICE MERCHANT, and we will say that the people that have more money than they know what to do with can still buy the same goods that we sell at 30 per cent. MORE IN PRICE at Mr. High Price Merchant's Store.

Let everybody unite in making the Business Big, and we will do our share to make your merchandise cheap. MR. BIG BUSINESS, MISS LITTLE PROFIT.
